To provide for the reduction of adolescent pregnancy, HIV rates, and other sexually transmitted diseases, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

March 22, 2007

Ms. Lee (for herself, Mr. Shays, Ms. Schakowsky, Ms. Linda T. Sánchez of California, Ms. Berkley, Mr. McDermott, Mr. Allen, Mr. Israel, Mr. Wu, Mr. Al Green of Texas, Mr. Davis of Alabama, Mr. Fattah, Mr. Emanuel, Mr. Berman, Mr. Farr, Mr. Grijalva, Ms. Woolsey, and Ms. Watson) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce

A BILL

To provide for the reduction of adolescent pregnancy, HIV rates, and other sexually transmitted diseases, and for other purposes.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
- 4 This Act may be cited as the "Responsible Education
- 5 About Life Act".
- 6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.
- 7 The Congress finds as follows:

- 1 (1)The American Medical Association 2 ("AMA"), the American Nurses Association 3 ("ANA"), the American Academy of Pediatrics ("AAP"), the American College of Obstetricians and 4 Gynecologists ("ACOG"), the American Public 5 6 Health Association ("APHA"), and the Society of Adolescent Medicine ("SAM") support responsible 7 8 sexuality education that includes information about 9 both abstinence and contraception.
 - (2) Recent scientific reports by the Institute of Medicine, the American Medical Association, and the Office on National AIDS Policy stress the need for sexuality education that includes messages about abstinence and provides young people with information about contraception for the prevention of teen pregnancy, HIV/AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases ("STDs").
 - (3) Government-funded abstinence-only-until-marriage programs are precluded from discussing contraception except to talk about failure rates. An October 2006 report from the Government Accountability Office concluded that the current administration of abstinence-only-until-marriage programs by the Department of Health and Human Services ("HHS") fails to require medical accuracy of the vast majority of funded programs and that no regular monitoring of medical accuracy is being carried out by HHS. The Government Accountability Office also reported on the Department's total lack of appropriate and customary measurements to determine if funded programs are effective. In addition, a separate letter from the Government Accountability Office in October 2006 to the Secretary of Health and Human Services Michael Leavitt contained a legal finding that the Department was in violation of Federal law, in particular section 317P(c)(2) of the Public Health Services Act (42 U.S.C. 247b-17(c)(2), for not requiring abstinence-only-untilmarriage programs to provide full and medically accurate information about the effectiveness of condoms. The Department has argued that the abstinence-only-until-marriage programs are exempt from the law; however, the Government Accountability Office disagrees.

(4) A 2006 statement from the American Public Health Association ("APHA") "recognizes the importance of abstinence education, but only as part of a comprehensive sexuality education program . . APHA calls for repealing current federal funding for abstinence-only programs and replacing it with

- funding for a new Federal program to promote comprehensive sexuality education, combining information about abstinence with age-appropriate sexuality education.".
 - Society for (5)The Adolescent Medicine ("SAM") in a 2006 position paper found the following: "Efforts to promote abstinence should be provided within health education programs that provide adolescents with complete and accurate information about sexual health, including information about concepts of healthy sexuality, sexual orientation and tolerance, personal responsibility, risks of HIV and other STIs and unwanted pregnancy, access to reproductive health care, and benefits and risks of condoms and other contraceptive methods... Current funding for abstinence-only programs should be replaced with funding for programs that offer comprehensive, medically accurate sexuality education".
 - (6) Research shows that teenagers who receive sexuality education that includes discussion of contraception are more likely than those who receive abstinence-only messages to delay sexual activity and to use contraceptives when they do become sexually active.

- (7) Comprehensive sexuality education programs respect the diversity of values and beliefs represented in the community and will complement and augment the sexuality education children receive from their families.
 - (8) The median age of puberty is 13 years and the average age of marriage is over 26 years old. American teens need access to full, complete, and medically and factually accurate information regarding sexuality, including contraception, STD/HIV prevention, and abstinence.
 - (9) Although teen pregnancy rates are decreasing, the United States has the highest teen pregnancy rate in the industrialized world with between 750,000 and 850,000 teen pregnancies each year. Between 75 and 90 percent of teen pregnancies among 15- to 19-year olds are unintended.
 - (10) A November 2006 study of declining pregnancy rates among teens concluded that the reduction in teen pregnancy between 1995 and 2002 is primarily the result of increased use of contraceptives. As such, it is critically important that teens receive accurate, unbiased information about contraception.

- (11) More than eight out of ten Americans believe that young people should have information about abstinence and protecting themselves from unplanned pregnancies and sexually transmitted diseases.
 - (12) The United States has the highest rate of infection with sexually transmitted diseases of any industrialized country. In 2005, there were approximately 19,000,000 new cases of sexually transmitted diseases, almost half of them occurring in young people ages 15 to 24. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, these sexually transmitted diseases impose a tremendous economic burden with direct medical costs as high as $14,100,000,000,000 per year.
 - (13) Each year, teens in the United States contract an estimated 9.1 million sexually transmitted infections. Each year, one in four sexually active teens contracts a sexually transmitted disease.
 - (14) Nearly half of the 40,000 annual new cases of HIV infections in the United States occur in youth ages 13 through 24. Approximately 50 young people a day, an average of two young people every hour of every day, are infected with HIV in the United States.

1	(15) African-American and Latino youth have
2	been disproportionately affected by the HIV/AIDS
3	epidemic. Although African-American adolescents
4	ages 13 through 19 represent only 15 percent of the
5	adolescent population in the United States, they ac-
6	counted for 73 percent of new AIDS cases reported
7	among teens in 2004. Although Latinos ages 20
8	through 24 represent only 18 percent of the young
9	adults in the United States, they accounted for 23
10	percent of the new AIDS cases in 2004.
